SURVEY SHOWS MIXED FEELING OVER SPLIT-SHIFT HIGH SCHOOL

DOUBLE SESSIONS for high school students provide little opportunity for youngsters to enjoy the company of their friends. This is one of the disadvantages which has arisen from the half-day program at Jefferson and Westmoor schools

By Nancy Shands
Double sessions—the term brings forth varied reactions from persons affected by this year's half day schedule at Jefferson and Westmoor High schools.

Although a few observers rage against "only partial education," most parents and students apparently have taken the program in their stride.

This fact is not as strange as it might seem at first glance—most of the families in the area have lived with double sessions throughout elementary school, with some parents reporting that their children scarcely know anything else.

For close to three months now, students of the Jefferson Union High School district have been attending high school for half day periods at the Mission street campus. Children east of Junipero Serra boulevard plus seniors go to Jefferson in the afternoon, while pupils west of the highway attend Westmoor in the morning. The plan will continue in operation until the completion of Westmoor, expected to open next September.

Separate Entities
Although both schools utilize classrooms at Jefferson High school on Mission street, separate entities are maintained with different teaching staffs, sports and other extra-curricular activities.

Enrollment at Westmoor is about 830 students, who attend from 7:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Approximately 1190 pupils attend Jefferson from 12:30 to 5 p.m.

In order to squeeze the school-day into the shorter time, administrators slashed five minutes off class periods to a total of 48 minutes.

utes, abandoned study period and cut two minutes off between-period time. There are a total of five periods at each school during the day, and not a single course has been eliminated from the schedule.

Generally, students themselves seem the least perturbed at the half day schedules.

"Doesn't Drag"
"Double session makes the day go faster because school doesn't seem to drag," Ron Moon, Jeff student body president, told this newspaper.

George McNutt, Jeff vice president, claims that the program "gives me more time to study and enter into extra-curricular activity" and that "shorter classes help me to pay more attention without getting too restless."

These sentiments also are advanced by Sandy Enloe, Jeff treasurer, who adds that "because of the smaller number of students in each school, the teachers have more time to give each student individual attention."

"Limited Education"
Rejecting the opinion of her schoolmates, Vicki Tomasi, Jeff junior class president, states that the program "boils down to limited education and activities." As examples, she cites fewer rallies, assemblies and games; inadequate classroom, lack of study hall and inability to gain employment after school.

On the whole, Westmoor students feel lucky to be attending classes in the morning, leaving them free for the entire afternoon.

McKEON ANNEX PASSES 1ST TEST

Protests Light At Hearing

A surprisingly small audience of 30 persons gathered Monday night at the council chambers for an informal hearing on the annexation of 345 acres of undeveloped property to the city of Daly City.

While there was only one written protest, several members of the audience expressed concern over the annexation, particularly the proposed 276-acre McKeeon subdivision, St. Francis Heights.

Only one councilman, Sanford Vickers, made inquiries of the subdivision. George and Chris McKeeon of the Zita Corporation, Vickers questioned whether drainage facilities at the subdivision, south of Broadmoor and west of Skyline boulevard, would be adequate to prevent flooding of the 87th and Washington street area.

Reduce 90%
George McKeeon declared that his land would be graded so that 90 per cent of the water now flooding into the critical Broadmoor area would be diverted.

Vickers, recently ousted from the North San Mateo county Sanitation district, also said there were "discrepancies" in the provisions for sanitary sewers. "What arrangements have been made for sewer lines, how will you construct them and where are your maps?" the councilman asked.

Mayor Joseph Verducci retorted that the two councilmen who were members of the sanitation district or George McKeeon could probably answer Vickers' questions.

"Does McKeeon represent the sanitation district?" fired back Vickers.

Councilman Del Wilson, a director on the sanitation board, said that the district has gone on record in favor of the annexation on advice of its attorney and that any provisions for sewers could be made after the land was annexed.

Audience Questions
Members of the audience posing questions on the annexation included: George Kirchhubel, local tavern owner, who asked what (Continued on Page 7)

LOCAL YOUTH, 5, 'CRITICAL' AFTER HE'S HIT BY AUTO

A five-year-old Daly City youngster was "holding his own" in Mt. Zion hospital today after he was the victim of a freak accident caused by a reckless juvenile here Monday afternoon.

In critical condition is Lawrence Ciardella, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Ciardella, 7469 Mission street.

He was swept off a curb at Second and Castle streets when a car driven by George Baker, 17, of 520 B street, Colma, sped into the intersection and crashed into another auto. The second car, driven by George E. Wannamaker, 37, of San Francisco, ran out of control and rammed the helpless boy, police said.

The child suffered fractures of the jaw, right leg and three ribs, also head and internal injuries.

According to officers, the Ciardella child was standing on the curb talking to playmates when the mishap occurred. His companions narrowly escaped injury by jumping away from Wannamaker's car, which spun around from the impact.

Villalba, who has a long record of traffic violations, was taken to Hillcrest Juvenile Home after being booked for speeding, driving with a suspended license, failure to yield the right-of-way and driving on the wrong side of the road.

Pair Save Woman In $5000 Fire

A dramatic rescue saved a Daly City woman from certain death Sunday afternoon when a $5000 fire gutted the home of Mrs. Doris Zeller at 174 Evergreen avenue.

Mrs. Zeller was led unharmed from the blazing building by Police Officer Lester Bastardo and a neighbor, Norman Cambia, who heard her cries and roped through smoke to bring her out.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy said Mrs. Zeller apparently had been smoking in the basement of her home, where the blaze started. Shortly after she left the basement for a second floor bedroom, the fire broke out about 1:15 p.m.

Cambia, 1112 Brunswick street, first broke through the rear door of the house, but was unable to break through the flames. He then rushed to the front door where he was joined by Bastardo. The fire completely gutted the second floor and caused extensive smoke damage, Kennedy said.

The call was the second of a hectic day for Daly City firemen. At 5:21 a.m. they were summoned to a recently condemned building at 96 Mission circle and found flames devouring the interior of the broken-down structure.

An adjoining building at 80 Mission circle sustained $400 damage from the blaze when its rustic siding was singed.

Kennedy believes the first was accidentally set by transients or teenagers "who have been using the building as a hangout of late."

Local Woman Struck By Car, Breaks Leg

A 20-year-old local woman suffered a fractured right leg late Wednesday night after she was struck by an auto while crossing the intersection of Mission street and Wellington avenue.

Victim was Diana Colthurst, 93 Muirwood drive, who was taken to Junipero Serra hospital for treatment.

Driver of the car, James E. Reed, 26, of 56 Goethe street, told police the woman was crossing against the light. He was not cited but officers are investigating.

Decision Possible Wednesday

Ordinance annexing 345 acres of property to the city of Daly City was introduced Tuesday night by Councilman Paul Hupf and will come up for adoption November 21.

Councilman Sanford Vickers, who had balked on several points of the annexation, won three changes in the annexation agreement last night and appeared ready to vote for the measure.

Changes urged by Vickers in the agreement for annexation of the proposed 276-acre subdivision included: that all municipal facilities installed by the subdivider be approved by the "city council" instead of by the "city manager"; that a clause which read "the city shall guarantee the subdivision adequate water," be changed to read that the city will provide water services on a par with the rest of the city; that the section covering proportionate costs to be borne by any property owner making use of facilities installed by Zita Corporation be re-worded to interpret exactly what role the city would play in arbitrating the sharing of costs.

George McKeeon, appearing for the Zita Corporation, said his firm had no objection to any of the changes and added that, "We'll abide by the wishes of Daly City."

The public hearing, which had been adjourned from Monday night, was closed and Hupf introduced the ordinance for annexation. Vickers at first held that introduction of the ordinance should be held up two weeks. He explained that annexation of the lands to the North San Mateo County Sanitation district did not come up for hearing before county supervisors until November 27.

Some 40 persons, 10 more than appeared at Monday's hearing, were in attendance, but only one citizen had any questions on the annexation.

Acting on the district attorney's interpretation of the controversial Brown Act, Jefferson Elementary district trustees Wednesday night adopted by a 3-1 vote a policy to exclude the press from all district meetings on school site acquisitions.

Declaring that public knowledge of these price and appraisal negotiations "might be detrimental to the district," the majority ruled that the information should only be available to news media after the board officially acts on site transactions.

Although the Brown Act specifically outlaws closed meetings with the exception of the hiring and dismissal of employees, the district attorney's interpretation ruled that the public could be denied access to matters of site negotiations. He made the ruling in reply to a query from the South San Francisco school district and subsequently it was forwarded to all districts within the county by the superintendent of schools.

The district attorney's interpretation, read, in part . . . "While the matter is not free from doubt, in our opinion, your board of trustees may discuss prices to be offered or paid for real property to be acquired by your district at study meetings not open to the public. It is also our opinion that appraisal reports submitted to your district with respect to such property, at least prior to acquisition of the said property or until a definite determination has been reached not to acquire same, are not public information, and may be withheld from inspection by anyone save representatives of your district."

He concluded, "We emphasize that the above reflects a conclusion based on reason and implied, rather than specific statutory authority, but in our opinion a court would be extremely reluctant to order the disclosure of the information under discussion at a time when it could seriously hamper the efficient and economical operation of your district and its land acquisition program. We stress, too, that the above discussion has been limited to a study discussion among your trustees, and any action taken by your board with respect to purchase, offers or the like, must be taken (Continued on Page 2)

Report Scores Many Fire Hazards At Jeff Hi Plant

Plenty of changes are in the offing to eliminate "greater than normal" fire hazards at overcrowded Jefferson High School as cited in a long-awaited report received by district officials last week from the state fire marshal.

Superintendent Edward D. Morgan, after poring over the highly technical seven-page report on the survey made last month, said it will take at least a month before the recommended improvements can be launched.

He has submitted a request to Architect Mario Ciampi to get an estimate on how much it will cost for engineers to determine the exact needs in dollars and cents. Once engineers have interpreted the needs, the suggested improvement work will be presented to the board of trustees for approval and then probably will go to bid, Morgan indicated. The superintendent will discuss the report further at the next board meeting November 26.

The report cited numerous violations of existing fire regulations at the 33-year-old plant, which Morgan said wasn't too surprising considering the building's age. John J. Hill of the state fire marshal's office, who assisted Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy in making the survey, remarked that Jefferson was in much better shape than other similarly constructed schools built about the same time.

Topping the report's recommendations was the need for additional exits in the auditorium, the east end of the main floor corridor and from the second floor of the auto shop. An extra exit from the locker room in the basement of the gym will not be necessary, Morgan pointed out, since the area will not be used in the future.

The report also urged a fire break in the attic, use of non-combustible interior finish materials, hardware changes to install panic bolts on inside doors, more fire extinguishers and ventilators and numerous electrical changes. Morgan said the fire extinguisher problem will be taken care of immediately.

Arrest 5 Teeners
Here As Suspects
In Stabbing Case

Five teenagers were arrested here Sunday night on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon in connection with the stabbing of an 18-year-old San Francisco youth at a party the night before on Hanover street in San Francisco.

Booked were two Daly City youths, Donald L. Parshall, 574 Evergreen avenue, and Charles R. Erickson, a marine of 40 Woodrow street, both 18; Michael Sullivan, 18, of San Leandro; George Tiaffay, 19, of Chula Vista, and a 15-year-old girl.

Four local policemen and two San Francisco officers nabbed the suspects at Parshall's home. Authorities uncovered three butcher knives in the near future.

Colma Councilman Ends 21-Year Stint; Post Filled

Things don't change much in the pastoral town of Colma but the town council will have a new look next time they meet.

Bartley Flynn, 65, "elder statesman" of Colma with 20 consecutive years on the council, submitted his resignation Wednesday night because he has changed his residence to San Carlos.

But, as always, the council greets such things with composure. They filled the vacancy the same night, naming Michael Ryan, brother of the now deceased police chief, Joseph Ryan, who died a year ago, to the post.

Ryan is superintendent at Holy Cross cemetery, while Flynn is clerk at the same institution. Ryan, a "newcomer" to Colma, has lived there approximately 15 years.

Flynn was first appointed to the council in December, 1936, to fill a vacancy and was re-elected for five more terms. He served as mayor from 1946 to 1948.

Ryan will fill the term until its 1960 expiration date.

So Colma's governmental upheaval was only of brief duration Wednesday, and tranquility has returned to the community.

Schools Get Holiday
For Part of Next Week

Virtually everyone will observe next Thursday's Thanksgiving Day holiday, but elementary and high school youngsters will be treated to three and two-day vacations, respectively.

Jefferson Elementary District schools will be closed Wednesday for teachers institute and sessions will not resume until the following Monday.

The Jefferson High School district students will observe the Thanksgiving holiday, as well as Friday, and will return to school on Monday.

With few exceptions, all businesses and food outlets will observe the Thanksgiving holiday.

of Thornton school and the only other library space now being utilized is in the seventh and eighth grades at Colma school. The board sympathized with the problem but agreed that overcrowded conditions have made it impossible to improve library facilities.

In other action, trustees:

1. Adopted resolution to proceed with condemnation proceedings on the Tozo property adjacent to Jefferson school.

2. Moved to call for bids for the lease of Westlake school on Sundays for religious instruction.

3. Agreed to hire an auditor for the next two years.

4. Moved to withdraw protest on the issuance of an alcoholic beverage license at 17 San Pedro road near the Jefferson school annex.

5. Hired Thomas Pollicita as physical education instructor at Colma school.

6. Heard a report by the superintendent on supervisory and administrative staff needs for 1957.

7. Revised preliminary plans on proposed storage room at Colma school with Architect Allyn C. Martin.

knives, a kitchen knife and a straight razor.

Police claim the suspects "crashed" the party at 301 Hanover and touched off a wild scuffle. During the battle, one of the suspects slashed a 16-year-old youth on the cheek and stabbed Robert Sandoval in the abdomen.

The latter was in a satisfactory condition today in a San Francisco hospital.

All four boys are parolees of the California Youth Authority. Three of them were turned over to probation officers and Erickson was placed in custody of armed forces police. The girl also was referred to juvenile authorities.

Parshall was booked as a parole violator as he previously was arrested for burglary and automobile theft, police said.

Survey Shows Mixed Feeling Over Split Shifts

Such an opinion is advanced by Mardell Fox, Westmoor junior class president. She adds, however, that "most of all I feel that we are not getting all the education that we need."

"Great Job"

"I think the kids have really worked hard to make a success of this double session and have done a great job," is the theory advanced by Georgia Smith, Westmoor chairman, who obviously is in favor of the program.

"Exciting" is the term chosen for double sessions by Sandy Smith, Westmoor treasurer, who explains that "students feel they're getting away with something."

Freshman student Louetta Lorenzen, in stating that she approves of half days, adds "I can not tell whether or not I like full day better because I have never gone all day in high school."

Mothers of youngsters on the program express widely varied opinions, although all praise school administrators for tackling the problem as best they could.

"Not Normal"

"It's not a normal thing," declares Mrs. Charles Hansen, another person to cite the employment problem for students on the afternoon session.

"I certainly don't like it, but what can we do with schools so crowded?" says Mrs. Fred Bertetta, whose senior class daughter has been on double sessions for seven years of her school life.

Mrs. Katherine Mullen takes a "tolerant" attitude, which she declares arises from her position as trustee on the Jefferson Elementary School district board. "We have to take the bad with the good," she states.

"Not Detrimental"

"More individual attention" from teachers because of small classes is cited by Mrs. John Eckert, PTA president, as a benefit of the program. "If it keeps going as smoothly as it appears now, I would say it is not detrimental."

Mrs. Jay Doyle, who says she remembers being crammed into a seat at a Roseville school when she was a child, adds that "we just have to accept" the situation.

"I don't feel double sessions have worked any hardship," opines Mrs. Edward Goldkuhl, who says her youngest can utilize afternoons for music practice or employment.

"Although we thought it would be a problem, it has worked out fine," declares Mrs. L. Duncan, who adds that administrators have "gone to great pains."

This attitude is shared by Mrs. Fred C. Wittig. "So far there is no disadvantage at all," she states, stipulating "I hope it doesn't show up later."

Most Concerned

Of the groups interviewed, school administrators, trained in the value of a well-rounded and full education, seem most concerned over the present situation.

"The losers are our young people," freely admits Superintendent Edward Morgan, who took his position here only this year.

"During this emergency we are making every effort to minimize the educational losses, and we hope that during the next nine years, a period that will see our high school district's enrollment increase from 2016 to 8000 students, that it will not be necessary to continue our double session program," he states.

"Inadequate educational program" is the phrase used by Jefferson Principal John Mongan to describe the effects of half days.

Mongan notes that athletes particularly are being deprived of time which should be spent in classes because they often must leave school as early as 2 p.m. Lack of opportunity for students to "socialize" with each other also is cited as a drawback.

Although Mongan and Westmoor Principal Glenn South were interviewed separately, both advance almost identical opinions.

"Close rapport of the teaching staff" is given by South as reason for the smoothness of the program. He and Mongan both bemoaned the fact, however, that teachers have little opportunity to confer with one another and with students under double sessions.

No Crime Increase

Perhaps the most dreaded outcome of the half-day program—that of too much leisure time resulting in an increased juvenile crime rate—has so far failed to materialize, according to authorities.

The North Coastside, with its lack of recreational facilities, was the expected scene of much trouble. Number of juvenile disturbances has remained at a status quo, Sheriff's Deputy Wilbur Graininger tells this paper.

Frederick Lucas, superintendent of the Laguna Salada elementary school district, backs the deputy's statement with the words, "it is much better than we anticipated."

Questions Cause

"A slight increase in the number of juvenile reports is shown," reports Daly City Juvenile Officer Charles Terry, "although whether a direct cause of double sessions, I cannot say."

A total of 62 reports were gathered in July, August and September of this year, while only 35 were in evidence last year during the same three months. These figures, however, do not back the contention that half days have increased the crime rate. Biggest jump, from 4 to 25, appeared in the month of August when youngsters were on vacation.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage reports "no increase," saying that only incidents to appear so far are high school youngsters heckling former elementary teachers during the afternoons.

At an open public meeting.

Trustee Henry Kraus voted against the resolution, claiming that the public had a right to know about site negotiations at the discretion of the district. He stated that the move was too strong a stand for the district to make.

Approving the resolution were Board Chairman Mrs. Katherine Mullen, Hartley Appleton and Joseph Lewkowicz. Trustee Michael Callan was absent from the meeting.

P. G. and E. answers your questions about electric blankets

Q. Do you really sleep better with an electric blanket?

A. Almost everyone does. An electric blanket lets you dial the sleeping comfort that suits you best. It spreads gentle warmth evenly over the entire bed—and keeps it at the temperature you want—all night long, regardless of the weather outside.

Q. How do you control the warmth?

A. Just turn the blanket "ON" each night—it does the rest! If the room temperature rises or falls, the blanket corrects for this temperature change—automatically.

Q. What about the new dual controls?

A. You can now buy an electric blanket with two controls—one control for each half of the blanket. This way husband and wife can select the sleeping comfort he or she likes best.

Q. How do you make a bed with an electric blanket?

A. Some models have "box" corners for perfect fit. Others spread across the bed like an ordinary blanket. Either way, bed-making is fast and easy!

Q. Can they be laundered?

A. Yes—just follow the manufacturer's instructions. Made of cotton, rayon, nylon and the new "miracle" fabrics, they dry soft, fluffy and ready to spread.

Q. What sizes are available?

A. You can now get "twin," "double" and the new "king" size (twice twin bed size). Both single and dual controls are available on the double bed size.

Q. How many people own electric blankets?

A. In Northern California more than half a million people now sleep under electric blankets.

Q. What does it cost to operate one?

A. Just a penny a night, thanks to P. G. and E.'s low rates for electricity—a mighty small price for a good night's sleep! Don't you agree?

Electricity is cheap in California!

SOMEBODY ELSE'S BUSINESS

In a 20-page tome, the city manager and an economist secured by him last week outlined a new licensing code for the City of Daly City which would base the business license fee on gross receipts.

The council had virtually no knowledge of this report, and its preparation was not authorized at an open session of the council.

In the interim between now and when this proposed legislation is acted on, we urge a vigorous campaign against this measure and hope the council will see the dangers inherent in this code.

We feel the license code would constitute an invasion of businessmen's privacy, a deterrent to attracting new businesses to the community and a colossal headache for every one under its jurisdiction.

Let's examine the purpose of this legislation. Its authors claim it will "equalize" cost of business licenses and will benefit the small merchant.

As it stands now the uniform fee is $18 a year. Investigators of the new license code say that fees for small businesses will go as low as $10 per year.

But a close look at the proposed schedule shows that only those businesses grossing less than $10,000 a year will take advantage of this $10 fee. How many businesses in Daly City gross less than $10,000 and still survive? An infinitesimal amount.

After a business grosses more than $30,000, the fee is $18 and upward, depending on the classification of the business.

Thus, a minute fraction of Daly City's business people might realize at the most an $8 a year savings.

But hundreds of business houses grossing $30,000 or more would pay anywhere from $1 to $100s more than the current $18 fee.

Obviously, the plan is not one to "equalize" business license fees, but to provide a new source of city revenue. Just another tax.

The federal and state governments have made appalling inroads into the privacy of the individual and businessmen through sundry use, sales and income taxes.

Now, under this measure, the city will act as an inquisitor, being granted power under the code to "examine all necessary books and records of any person doing business in the city required to be licensed by the terms of the ordinance, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of the license required to be paid."

Having the federal and state government probe through the fiscal records is distasteful to all businessmen. But now the city would have the audacity to do the same.

The city is the last remaining shred of autonomy the citizen has in this day and age of giant government. And its remnants would be torn further by this proposed measure.

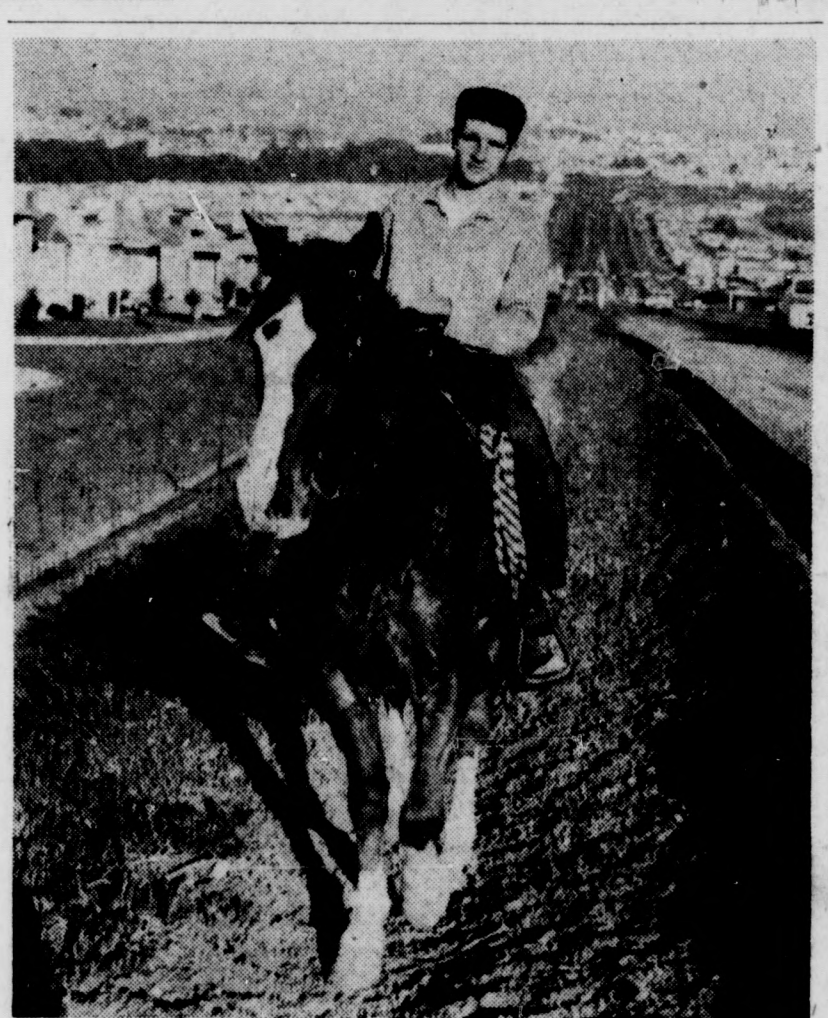

That the code would pose a monumental headache to the already red-tape beleaguered merchant is obvious by the gobbledygook wording of the measure, i.e., "If the business operates on a gross margin of less than 17 per cent, the license collector shall apply the rates set forth in gross receipts rate schedule A of section 13 of this ordinance..." ad nauseam.

The businessman will be obliged to compute all this trivia, after which his books must be opened for inspection by the city license collector.

New businesses would shun an already heavily-taxed community with the prospect of a bothersome and costly business license fee.

The city manager and his economist have devoted many hours to their 20-page treatise designed to enrich the city coffers.

But their efforts have been misguided. We suggest the proposed ordinance be scrapped right at the start and the energies of the city manager and council be applied solely to city government, which is their business—and not to private enterprise, which is somebody else's business.

AN ACUTE problem being pondered by city officials is equestrian traffic on the narrow bridge path adjacent to Aleman between Skyline and Lake Merced boulevards. After hearing numerous gripes from Westlake residents and riders on traffic hazards, councilmen have agreed to meet with the San Francisco Horsemen's Association to iron out the matter. Rider above is Jack MacDonald of 3874 19th avenue. THE RECORD photo

Even very young ladies like luncheons, so Carrie Cauchi made several guests very happy when she invited them to her birthday party. It was a luncheon affair, complete with corsages and sandwiches on pink and green bread, no less! Ringing the Cauchi doorbell on Wildwood at the appointed hour were Carol Jean Crawford, Carolyn Ralph, Sandy Contreras, Kathy Mahoney, Audrey Zweig, Sharon Cauchi, Perky Gillespie, Candy Chaves and Ann Mulerey. Nearly forgot—Carrie was celebrating her 6th birthday.

The Krueger family of Louvaine have been busy lately. Gracia flew down to Long Beach for a Girl Scout conference, and the rest of the family joined her there for a weekend at Disneyland. They rented a car for the occasion—a convertible, and had a wonderful time. Aside from all this traveling activity, son Bill has been dancing in the entertainment performances given for the patients at Letterman General Hospital.

Smatterings: The pictures Corinne Bryce showed of her summer European trip had the Presbyterian Women's association ohing and ahing at their last meeting; hear tell they were something to see... Doris and Ralph Silva spent this past weekend moving from Maddux to their new home on Thornhill... Larchmont's Florence Ecker kept Gracia K company on the Girl Scout caper.

The LePine-Hughes next-door-neighbor move from BV to Millbrae Meadows made a daily column in one of the SF morning papers... With Bea and Tom Ganter present as proud godparents, little Lydia English celebrated her first birthday with a clan-gathering on Larchmont, complete with chicken dinner and special cake... New area Avon representative is Sue Tollini of 87th street. With Christmas coming, she can give you a helping hand, gift-wise. Try PL 6-3208 and see!

We've been hearing that the new Joe's in Westlake is a very popular place to eat. Proving this theory recently was a luncheon group with Eileen Crofton as special guests. Vi Murphy, Cassie Azevedo, Jean Cain, Billie Buchanan, and Mel Bocci were co-hostesses. An extra touch was added when they found out it was Billie's birthday (many happy returns, Billie!), and to complete the picture, who should serve them but Nimitz Drive's Roberta Taylor. One top-notch waitress, that gal.

Visited Verna Duste and her daughter Lois down in San Mateo the other day, and found all the family well and enjoying their new home. Marc is now in kindergarten, and Anita has grown like the proverbial weed. Ray, who isn't busy enough with his job and oboe-playing, now is teaching oboe to quite a few students and enjoying it immensely. Verna said to say hi to everyone for her.

If your small fry have reached the point where they need someplace to do homework and to store the innumerable pieces of paperwork which come fluttering home with them from school, you might try going down to 630 York street, where the SF School District sells old school desks, chairs and tables for very low prices. They're old-fashioned and some are scarred, but they're hardwood, and serve the homework purpose admirably, as well as giving children a working surface for clay or model-making or whatever they may have as a project. York is between Hampshire and Bryant, off 18th street. NB: take a check—they won't accept cash.

Another birthday on the list, one belonging to Patty Warmoth of Louvaine. Patty turned 4, and invited Jan Rizzo, Janice Mackintosh, Gregory Florio, Michael Buell and Stephanie Ganter to share her fun... Just to get into the swing of things, 87th street's Nancy Swoverland had a party too, to mark her 6th year. Guest list included Shellie and Patty Alba, Sharon and Stephanie Tollini, Janet Brugge, Steven Andrade, Diane Bruch, Perky Gillespie, and Marilyn and Brian Mattson.

Sorry to report that John Taylor has been in the hospital with an infection, and that the Broadmoor Pharmacy's Marie Mathieu has been hospitalized for surgery. They are both on the way up, however, which is good news. We'd also like to tell Mel Leonard how sorry we were to hear of her father's death; this thought also comes from all her friends and neighbors, we know.

Newest little Villager is Jody Ann Marie Knutli, who has come to live on Maddux with Eric, Jill, Cindy and Gary, and parents Adelaide and Wayne. She weighed 8 lbs 3 oz, and is quite a girl, according to family reports.

Looking for a dog? You'll find a few of them if you go up to the top of Gilman. It seems as though two Airedales, belonging to the Hultgren family, had 10 pups each, which is a lot of Airedales to have around the house, so the pups are for sale! They are cute, we understand, and pedigreed as well. An early Christmas present for a child, perhaps?

Don Menary is a Wildwood Person of Importance these days. He is now the leader of the orchestra at Bimbo's 365 Club, and plays a mean trumpet to boot. The phone has been busy these days with calls from admiring friends offering congratulations, et al. Seems another columnist in another SF paper mentioned this item; how our Village news does get around!

A couple of departments are on the list. The Zachmans are leaving Maddux for Stockton, courtesy of a business transfer, and the Seamans are leaving Stewart for Guam, courtesy of the US Navy. Alice S. is busy trying to wind up the details of Village Play School publicity before she leaves, get the family packed, and sort out the things which must stay behind for storage. They must be in Guam by the 13th of December, and hope to have a few days in Hawaii first. They will be flying, so maybe this will work out. We hope so. Adios, amigos.

Another Navy family, the Art Bullens of Village Lane, have been traveling too, but not on orders. Art and Betty took a few days out of the routine for themselves, and went on a fishing trip to Orleans, on the Klamath River. They went with another couple with whom they had made the same trip 9 years ago, BC (before children), and they stayed at the same McGinnes Inn. Betty told us that the food and the fishing were excellent, and they caught several steelhead. The Bullens barely got home in time to take off again, this time to San Bernardino to attend Betty's brother Don's wedding. Art left there and came home early in order to take off for Washington DC (this time for the Navy), and Betty and the children had a few days with her family before coming back home. They brought new sister Ione with them, as Don will be stationed at Fort Ord for a while. This is Ione's first time in SF, and she is enjoying it.

There was great commotion and uproar in the vicinity of the Don Childers' house on Wildwood not so long ago. There was also the same sort of thing en route to, and at, the 49er game a week back, and at Sabella's on Fisherman's Wharf afterwards. The reason? Only the Childers' new bronze and cream, 4 door, hardtop, 1957 Dodge, that's all. We hear it's the most... and that heads are still turning when they drive by in it.

Nora Neal, currently of MacArthur, but shortly of St. Louis, was faced with a real problem when her husband, in St. Louis for his company, sent word for her to pack up and move back here to join him, as he had been offered another job. Needless to say, poor Nora was in a quandary trying to get things taken care of, considering she had only a week's time. Paradox of the whole thing is that her husband went back to St. Louis as the driver of a moving van!

Something new in the way of parties came to light when Bunny Gillespie had a Scottish tea one Sunday afternoon in honor of husband Ken's birthday. Guests coming to the Gilman house got into the spirit of the thing, and brought Scottish presents, and remained to enjoy Scotch shortbread, scones and all the rest of the things which make up a tea. Vince and Gloria Cauchi, Collins and Dorothy Oton, Leah and Joe Harrison, Joe and Jean LaConte, the Ken Mitchell family, the Lee Harolds of Redwood City, and the John McCallums of San Francisco were all there, as was Gilmanite Ruthmary Warner. Cliff Warner was out on a hunting expedition with Clarry Ottosen at the time; yes, they both got a deer!

Before Hallowe'en slides into the dim and distant past too entirely, we'd like to mention David LaConte's Hallowe'en dinner, David, who is 8 and lives on Gilman, helped his mother make all the decorations and plan the party, held the Friday before H-night. Guests delighted by the whole thing were Perky Gillespie, Judy Johnson, Chuckie Warfel, Jimmy Henderson, Mark and Paul Caserta, Cliff Warner, Dean Maloney and Ricky LaConte.

Something For Everyone

Club leaders and community chairmen who are planning programs for the Fall and Winter can obtain much practical help from books at the Daly City Public Library and its Westlake-Broadmoor Branch.

One of the newest and most comprehensive aids to program planning is Clement Duran's THE PROGRAM ENCYCLOPEDIA. The 630-page manual outlines more than 5,000 program ideas for clubs and organizations. Chapters are also included on where to get speakers, program methods, sources of films, and other related topics.

Another new book, Harry Simmons' HOW TO RUN A CLUB, has helpful material on how to plan interesting programs, obtain speakers, build attendance and publicize meetings. THE CLUB-WOMAN'S BOOK, by Helen Avery and Frank Nye, has a chapter on "Planning the Club Year," which gives practical tips for planning interesting and worthwhile club programs the year around.

Also available at the library are books which cover the duties of officers, the work of committees, parliamentary practice, discussion techniques, publicity and public speaking.

Donald and Eleanor Laird's THE NEW PSYCHOLOGY FOR LEADERSHIP is a recent book with many practical applications for those engaged in club work and service organizations.

Among the new books at the library are the following, any one of which might serve program leaders with ideas for discussion: THE CASE FOR MODERN MAN, by Charles Frankel; THE PUBLIC ARTS, by Gilbert Seldes, a revised and rewritten work covering and expanding the material of his earlier book, THE SEVEN LIVELY ARTS; ENJOYING MODERN ART, by Sarah Newmeyer; THE THEME IS FREEDOM, by John Dos Passos; THE PARENTS' HANDBOOK, by Allan Fromme; THE ART OF GROWING MINIATURE TREES, PLANTS AND LANDSCAPES, by Tatsuo Ishimoto; THE BLESSINGS OF LIBERTY, by Zechariah Chafe, Jr.; and Kent Cooper's THE RIGHT TO KNOW, a study of the freedom of the press.

Periodicals can also be of great value in helping club leaders with their problems. Do not hesitate to ask for help in finding such material at either the Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, or the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive.

PERSONALITY SKETCH... Soft red hair pulled back simply in a pony-tail hair style walked into the room and faced the press. A short time later shorn of glamour... hair straggling around her face... dressed in a home-spun sack dress... the same beautiful girl starred in a preview of the intensely dramatic film, "The Road That Led Afar," which will be shown on the General Electric Theater over the CBS-TV network and KPX on Sunday, November 25, at 9 p.m.

Thus was our introduction to one of Hollywood's most beautiful stars, Piper Laurie. A movie star before she had reached the age of 21, she has starred in dozens of films in addition to several television appearances including Robert Montgomery's hour-long show and "Front Row Center."

To say we were moved by the program is putting it mildly. Without a doubt, we feel it was one of the most powerful dramas we have ever seen on television. As Piper portrays a delicate lonely girl who marries a widower (portrayed by Dan Duryea) and comes to live in a rustic mountain cabin, the story grips our interest from beginning to end. In camera close-ups her sensitive face reflects deep and heartfelt emotion. We cannot forget, either, the intense expressions displayed by the four young children, or the small hand of the baby as it reaches out of the blanket to the young girl who has come to take their mother's place.

According to Pat Newcomb of the Arthur P. Jacobs Company, who accompanied Miss Laurie to San Francisco, the producers and everyone concerned with the show feel that this particular drama in the General Electric series is its bid for television's annual "Emmy" award as one of the outstanding television dramatizations of the year. Somehow we feel they are right. It is a program that we know you will remember for months to come, and is certainly deserving of recognition.

Daly City Library To Close Nov. 19-24 For Redecoration

The Daly City Public Library, 6351 Mission street, will be closed for redecoration for one week, November 19 to 24, inclusive. Borrowers who have withdrawn books which would fall due during that period are advised that they will not be due until Monday, November 26. Books may be returned during the time the library is closed at the above address, or at the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive, but no books will be issued at the Mission street building during the week in which redecoration is in progress.

Library borrowers are reminded that they may use the Westlake-Broadmoor Branch Library, 34 Park Plaza drive, in the Westlake shopping center, which is open the following hours: Monday through Friday, 1 to 6 p.m.; Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 7 to 9 p.m.; and Saturday, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Library will, of course, be closed on November 22, Thanksgiving Day. The Colma branch of the San Mateo County Free Library, in the Colma community center on Dunk street, is also open to Daly City and Broadmoor residents. It is open on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday from 2 to 5 p.m., and on Monday and Thursday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Burglar Ransacks Jeff High Office

A burglar ransacked the principal's office at Jefferson High school late last week after breaking in by smashing a window.

Glen South, Westmoor principal, discovered the intrusion Thursday morning but reported that nothing was missing. The culprit pried the hasp off the trophy case located in the lobby, apparently seeking a display of school rings which fortunately had been placed earlier in the school safe, South said.

Police also said a window on a rear door of the school was broken, but the invader was stymied because the door was padlocked from the inside.

Bocci Cracks Down On Four Local 'Litterbugs'

Four "litterbugs" who dumped trash along Skyline boulevard were fined $50 each and placed on two-hour cleanup details Thursday by Judge Thomas L. Bocci in municipal court.

Sentence was imposed on Alex Paulos and Paul Ludwick of San Francisco, Samuel Haverson, 279 Glenwood avenue, Westlake, and William Hayes, 727 Steward street, Colma.

The four were arrested by sheriff's deputies.

Again my sincere thanks for your efforts in my behalf as the nominee of the Democratic party.

Cordially yours,

In talking to Piper Laurie following the luncheon, we found her to be a most earnest young lady. Although she looks like a glamorous college girl, she certainly knows what she wants and is quite serious about her career. As she explained to us, she is considering other television programs, but as yet hasn't committed herself, unless she feels they are right for her. As she quietly stated during the press conference, "Some People may disagree with me, but I consider myself an actress."

We feel certain you will agree she has proved to be a fine actress in "The Road That Led Afar." All we can say is don't miss it!

The RICHARD VARNEYS (former Theresa "Joan" Dydo) recently enjoyed a week's visit here with her parents, the Theodore Dydos on Price before returning to Los Angeles, where they are making their home while Richard is in the service of the U. S. Army.

Just after their arrival JOAN was honored at a surprise stork shower given by Mrs. Emily Hernandez also a resident of Price street. Couples who enjoyed the get-together were: the Frank Priscos, Edward Westmore, Charles Champagne, John Murphys, Don Stevensons, George Andersons, A. Verhagens, and the W. Woodburys.

Christening services were held last Sunday at the Post Chapel in the Presidio for MATTHEW PETER, the infant son of CAPTAIN and MRS. LAWRENCE JOSEPH MEANEY of East Vista. Godparents are Mrs. Donald Gibson with stand in (proxy) Robert Bitterlich of Washington, the baby's grandfather.

The MEANEYS history is a rather interesting one and to date it reads that... Mrs. Meaney was born and raised in Philadelphia, Captain Meaney comes from Brooklyn. The two met in Washington, D. C., and were married in Fort Riley, Kansas. Their first son, LAWRENCE III, was born in Fort Bliss, Texas. Next in line come STEVEN, who made his debut at the Johnson Air Force Base in Japan. Little over two months ago the Meaneys met the stork at Letterman hospital and welcomed Master MATTHEW to the family. To date the Meaneys have had seven changes of stations in seven years.

"Born in a cabbage patch" was the theme of the recent stork shower given by MRS. ALBENA COLLINS of B street, Colma, for her daughter-in-law, MRS. BEA LAGOMARSINO, the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts for the expected heir. The dining room was gaily decorated in the traditional stork trimmings, with the center piece at the table made of a large cabbage, filled with pink baby roses, tiny dolls adorned the leaves surrounded by many good things to eat. A good time was had by all, in fact it was 3:00 before the last guest left.

The gala affair was witnessed by Kate Bocci, Rose Sweeney, Lou Jennings, Honey Collins, Cordina Fontana, Maxine Lee, Gladys MacGurty, Rita Bocci, Molly Gold, Theresa Stanpanoni, Irene Blambi, Dodie Sanguinetti, Betty Gigli, Doris Barros, Barbara Albee, Martha O'Shea, Laura Baccelli, Mabel Vaccari, Vera Viola, Charlotte Brisoletti, Nina and Corrine Riccomi, Lillian, Elsie and Rose Bertucci. FRANK PRISCO of Brunswick is in the midst of organizing a Cub Scout Pack out here, which is to be sponsored by the Grace Presbyterian church located at Crocker and Winchester. Any boy eight to eleven years of age interested in joining should have his parents contact Mr. Prisco at JU 7-9665.

MICHAEL JOSEPH is the name of the new arrival to the WILLIAM AMAROLI family on Baldwin street. This little guy made his timely appearance on October 31, tipping the scales at seven pounds, fourteen ounces at the St. Francis hospital. The Hallowe'en treat is the brother of Jeanie and Billy, grand-parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Amaroli, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Al Imperial, both of San Francisco. Happy birthday to MISS JEANIE who will be the center of attraction on November 20, when all the relatives will gather to help her claim that fifth birthday.

To celebrate a rather belated birthday JOAN HILLMAN of B street, Colma, recently entertained a group of her friends at a "come as you are" breakfast. The novel event was enjoyed by: Barbara Marsigli, Barbara Tofya, Caroline Dennis, Susan Dayman, Arlene Hansen, Joyce McCowan, Ruth Ponchione, Sharon Cook, Betty Brown and Sandy Bach.

Only the mothers of the guests knew of the breakfast, so that the guests were the surprised ones. The mothers of the guest in turn surprised JOAN with gifts for her long past birthday.

While mobilizing around with his crutches and cast BRENT RUSSETT of B street, Colma, accidentally broke his leg again, just a few days before he was to part with his cast after his recent operation. This time BRENT will be out of circulation for sometime and on the flat of his back in a cast from his chest to his toes.

ST. MARTIN'S Episcopal church plans to start construction next summer on a church building of contemporary design. Situated at Southgate Avenue and Bradley drive, the building will contain classroom, office, and kitchen facilities and will seat 300.

EPISCOPALIANS VIEW PROPOSED NEW CHURCH

Architects' drawings for a church building of contemporary design to be erected at Southgate Avenue and Bradley drive were exhibited Sunday at St. Martin's Episcopal church services in Westlake auditorium.

Costing approximately $80,000, the building will occupy the upper portion of the church property, and will be converted to a parish hall when a large permanent church can be built below it at some future date, according to the Rev. Allen J. Downey, Vicar. The projected first building will be used for all church activities and will contain classroom, office, and kitchen facilities as well as a main hall seating 300 persons.

Though modern in design, such traditional features of church architecture as a steeple, nave, transept, and choir have been included. Conventional Gothic windows will be suggested by plain glass windows reaching from floor to roof on the street side.

Fund-raising for this building has been the chief concern of the congregation since its inception in July, 1955. It is expected that construction will begin next summer after a drive in May to double the sum of $10,000 which has been raised to date.

Gordon Raeside Jr. heads the building committee, which is now tabulating comments on the proposed building from all interested persons. Working with him are Mrs. Gordon P. Andrews, Frank Blum, U. R. Kendree, Walter F. Michels, Thomas Nash, and D. R. Wainwright, all of Westlake; Mrs. Chester S. Mattison, Broadmoor; and Frank Specht Jr., Daly City.

Jeff High Band To Perform In 'Band Day' Fete

Jefferson High School's band, directed by A. B. Rummels, will be one of 82 bands from Northern California high school participating in the seventh annual "High School Band Day" Saturday afternoon during halftime of the Washington State-California football game at Berkeley.

Approximately 4700 bandmen, including the massive University of California band, will move onto the field twenty columns abreast. They will form a solid formation stretching from goal post to goal post while 300 high school majorities form a perimeter of twirling batons.

United under the direction of James Berdahl, the bands will play "Military Escort" and "Americans We" by Fillmore; "Band Day, USA" by Buchtel, and "Drums and Bells" by Yoder.

High School Band Day was originated on the California campus in 1950. In recent years other colleges have followed this precedent until now practically every university in the nation holds a festival of this type.

FIFTH GRADE
MRS. MARGARET CLARKE
By Jay Jones
Lately our fifth grade class has been doing a great deal of clay work.

Last week we visited the Cow Palace. The class saw horses, cows, sheep, pigs, Brahma bulls, three mules and the Budweiser wagon and Clydesdale horses.

We have a noon-hour kickball game. Our team is the Panthers. Our captain is Joe Valencia. The team members are Steven Willis, Jay Jones, Mark Perry, Jill Johnston, Mike Smyser, Hanson Lee, Jim Todd and Bob Quinteros.

SIXTH GRADE
MRS. BUSETO
By Esther Szames
Mr. Huardo, physical education coordinator, helped us organize a kickball team and substitutes.

Three student officials umpire when their team is not playing. A council, made up of one representative from each class, decided on the rules. Each team plays five games and officiates at two.

We have two new boys in our class. James Watt came from the northern part of Ireland, and he brought some Irish coins to share with us. Bradley Hess came from the northern part of Nevada.

On November 7 we had the opportunity of visiting the Cow Palace to see the Livestock Exhibition. We saw some judging of livestock. We also saw some of the famous Scotch Clydesdale Budweiser horses. These horses are about five-feet, eight-inches high and weigh 2000 pounds.

JUDGE RULES HALF OF ASSEMBLYMAN'S SALARY ATTACHABLE

San Francisco Superior Judge John B. Molinari ruled Friday that a Los Gatos woman can bring action to attach the legislative salary of recently re-elected Assemblyman Louis Francis, but declared that only half of his salary can be attached.

Hearing will be held December 9 to hear arguments by Francis that while half of his salary is exempt from the action, the other half should also be made exempt.

Nell Kelly is seeking to collect a $1250 judgment from a suit brought in 1949 alleging that Francis unlawfully forced her to move some possessions, owned by Francis, from apartment storage space in San Francisco.

Police believe the culprit entered by the unlocked back door. The couple had been away two weeks and Mrs. Albert's mother told officers she noticed that several pieces of mail inside the house had been "rearranged" during their absence.

Judge Bocci Raps Local Youth, 21, For 'Cycle Chase

A 21-year-old Daly City motorcyclist was given a choice of 30 days in county jail or a $200 fine in municipal court last week after police spotted him speeding through South San Francisco with no lights on his vehicle.

Sharply reprimanded by Judge Thomas L. Bocci was Donald R. Magnuson, 514 Winchester street, who was nabbed by two South San Francisco officers after a high-speed chase.

The cops discovered Magnuson and two other cyclists speeding on Grand avenue shortly before midnight Wednesday. When they gave chase, Magnuson's companions disappeared down Grand, but the Daly City youth was captured a few minutes later on Hillside boulevard when he lost control of his cycle. Officers said Magnuson was doing "up to 75 miles an hour" before they stopped him.

A burglar entered the kitchen of a home at 832 Lausanne street last week and took $132 in checks and cash from a cabinet, according to police.

Victim was Edward Starika, a musician, who reported the loss Thursday morning and wondered how the thief overlooked an additional $100 cash in another drawer of the cabinet.

Police said the intruder apparently got into the house through an unlocked door since there were no signs of forced entry.

facilities the subdivider was to provide; William Beck, 431 89th street, who requested that necessary drainage be installed to avoid further flooding of the Broadmoor area; Joseph Schultz, landscape contractor, who said the annexation had been "confused" because it was merely presented as the McKean annexation, whereas several other parcels of property were being taken in. Other land up for annexation includes Henry Doelger's 21 acres and smaller parcels belonging to Thomas Callan Jr., G. Schenone, PG&E and the Hope Lutheran church; Mrs. Ella Streeter, housewife, who inquired "how long will it take before we realize new taxes from this area?"; Andrew Castle, who asked what agreement had been made for furnishing school sites; and Arthur Huesle, who asked what the annexation would cost in dollars and cents.

A lengthy letter from Mrs. W. H. Beck, 431 89th street, cited reasons why the council should consider "refusing annexation until such time as it is shown fair provisions have been made for school sites, sufficient sanitary facilities, storm drains and other necessary modern facilities."

Speaking on behalf of the annexation, Richard Lyons, attorney for the McKean, said the transaction would be of "great benefit to Daly City" in that it would provide about $185,000 a year in new city property taxes, $9 per year per person in state subventions, would result in more water revenue, more revenue from mis-

PLANNERS OK THREE FENCES OVER SIX FEET

Over protests of Westlake Improvement association, Daly City planning commission Tuesday night approved variance requests from three Westlake residents who seek to build fences higher than the six-foot maximum permitted by city ordinance.

Variances approved included: G. J. Roullier, 1361 South Mayfair avenue, 7-foot fence; Albert Faraolo, 1417 South Mayfair avenue, 7' 8" fence; and Lee Calcagno, 1409 South Mayfair avenue, 8-foot fence.

Use permit was granted for Marjorie Tholen, 362 Willits street, to do dressmaking in her home.

Henry Doelger's application to erect a temporary billboard at northeast corner of Alemany and Lake Merced boulevard was approved.

Final map of Westlake unit 9 won approval.

Also okayed was installation of a neon sign for Van Suts Ice Cream at 2159 Junipero Serra boulevard.

cellaneous licenses, permits, fines and forfeitures and could expand Daly City's commercial development.

Also lauding the annexation was the Rev. Louis Marting, pastor of Hope Lutheran church, which is located within the area up for annexation.

The hearing, unofficial since it fell on a holiday, was continued to Tuesday night.

TRIBE HARRIERS GET ONLY SIXTH IN COAST TRIALS

Jeff's varsity harriers wound up their season Friday in Palo Alto with a sixth-place finish in the North Coast Section trials on the Stanford course.

Competing in the bracket for schools 900 to 1200 in population, the Tribe failed to place a man in the top five. Palo Alto took the title and Viking John Northway posted a winning time of 10:15 over the 1.96 miles.

Running for Jeff were Andy Estigoy, Al Davila, Dan Anderson, Gary Romriell, Bud Pollard, John Nichols and Wayne Harris.

Carlmont's Tom Jent paced his team to triumph in the 1200 to 1500 bracket with a winning cruise of 10:37.

Westmoor's harriers took third in the small school bracket behind Piedmont and San Ramon. Piedmont's Keith Wallace turned in the performance of the day as he broke the course record in 10:08.4.

'Player Of Week' Honor Goes To Burlingame End

Although his team lost, 28-13, Burlingame end Jim Scheurmann was picked North PAL, "Player of the Week" for his work against Capuchino last week. Jim caught four passes for 42 yards and a touchdown and played a fine defensive game.

Top man in the South PAL was adjudged Ko Abe, pint-sized Palo Alto halfback, who paced the unbeaten Vikings to a 21-6 win over Lincoln.

RECENTLY ENLISTED into the U. S. Navy under the "buddy" program were six Daly City youths. Shown here are Kenneth Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan A. Day of 88 Los Olivos avenue; George Rocchi, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Orestes Rocchi of 140 Mateo avenue; Roy Corner, son of Roy E. Corner of 243 Miriam street; Gary Fairchild, son of Mrs. P. F. Deming of 333 Miriam street; Joseph Varela, son of Mrs. R. J. Mora of 808 Ellis drive and Edmund Hyndman, son of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Hyndman of 826 Ellis drive. The boys were enlisted by Chief Polhemus of the U. S. Navy Recruiting branch station, 6705 Mission street.

JEFF JOTTINGS

"The Man Who Came to Dinner" will be presented for the second time this evening in the round at the Jefferson High School Auditorium at 8:30. Approximately two-hundred students and adults are expected to attend tonight's performance of this humorous three-act comedy by Kaufman and Hart.

Unique Honor Jefferson now claims the distinction of being the first school in the world to own a Selectomatic Library, a high-fidelity device which plays continuous music for approximately 30 hours. The machine, with a capacity of one-hundred 45 rpm records, will be used to supply all music for school dances and other functions where background melody is needed.

The initial senior girls' meeting of the year, conducted by Miss Ada Wood, was held in the auditorium last week. First order of business consisted of nominating students for the Good Citizen Award, to be given at a later date. After listening to necessary qualifications for this honor, the girls then chose Angela Sunderland, Marilyn Delbon, and Mary Ann Pace. A Good Citizen will be selected from among these three, who will be presented to the faculty, to represent Jeff in the state contest. Also discussed were graduation requirements and scholarships available to seniors.

Slumber Session The Trindians are planning a slumber party at the YWCA on Friday, November 30. As a service project, this active club intends to make Christmas cards for old folks, collect toys for orphanages, or to give to charities money which they hope to obtain from selling food during the milk break. Members of the Pep Club are busily engaged in selling balloons in the shape of footballs. They also are taking responsibility for arranging the seating plan for the Thanksgiving Day game.

Junior Class rings, the style of which has been changed for the first time in about four years, are now on sale at a slightly higher price than in previous times.

Dragons Capture Colma School's Football Title

The Dragons won Colma school's intramural grid title Friday after demolishing the Blackhawks, 6-6, in a playoff game.

Basis of the "triumph" was the Dragons' edge in first downs which determined the championship.

Playing for the Dragons were Mike Seelig, Bruce Howard, Wayne Pickering, Sonny Stoller, John Junglas, Ken Magoon, Ron Krawetz, Dave Christison, John Wilson and Leonard Bassin.

On the Blackhawks' roster were Jerry Morgan, Jean Luttringer, Bill Sarris, Jerry Bryant, John Westrom, Bill Oliver, Dave Iwasashi, Richard Beutler, John Hess and Ron Berry.

Twenty-four home room squads consisting of more than 300 players participated in the league. Each team played 15 games, with students as officials. All tilts were waged during the noon hour.

Colma's next sports activity for boys will be intramural volleyball, also during the noon hour.

Mull 2-Hour Parking For 3 City Streets

Proposal to establish two-hour parking on Irvington, Brunswick and School streets was held over for further study by the city council Tuesday night.

Councilmen asked further time on the matter since it was not on the original agenda.

In other action Tuesday, the council:

1. Adopted ordinance rezoning Lots 21, 22, 23, 24 of Block 1, $75 lot Homestead, to C-1.
2. Introduced ordinance banning possession and sale of snap blade knives.
3. Called for discussion on appointment to fill personnel board vacancy at next study session.
4. Held over action on transfer of franchise for local ash-can advertising.
5. Approved dance licenses for the following: Westlake Lodge, Our Lady of Perpetual Help church and Our Lady of Mercy church.
6. Approved business licenses for: gas station at 7200 Mission street; used car lots at 7577 Mission and 6774 Mission.
7. Adjourned to next Wednesday for possible adoption of ordinance annexing the McKean tract.

Loss To Capuchino Spoils W'moor 10's Bid For Loop Title

Westmoor's lightweight cagers dropped a pair of North PAL games to Capuchino Thursday in San Bruno, the 10's getting knocked out of a tie for the loop lead via a 27-14 decision and the 20's suffering their seventh straight loss, 31-30.

Defeat by Byron Van Alstyne's 10's gave them a 5-2 record entering Tuesday's tilts with Carlmont. San Mateo and the Scots are knotted for 10's leadership with 6-1 records. Westmoor upped the Bearcats two weeks ago, but Thursday's setback nudged them out of a showdown for the crown. Division playoffs are set this Thursday, with league finals next Tuesday.

The Cap 10's led the Rams at halftime, 12-8, and limited them to six points in the final two quarters to clinch the victory.

Al Mariani was high man for the losers with 15 points, while Roy Reese bucketed 8 for Westmoor.

The cellar-dwelling Ram 20's were behind 15-14 at halftime but rallied to take a 26-22 lead at the end of the third quarter. The Caps, however, tightened up and won it on a set shot in the last 40 seconds.

Bill Aragona paced the winners with 17 points. Lasker got 11 for the Rams and teammate Ross Holmgren bagged 8.

McGAHEY & OLSON JUST WON'T BUDGE FROM LOOP ROOST

It was the same old story in the Daly City-Colma League Tuesday night at Brentwood Bowl as front-running McGahey & Olson moved its margin to three games with a 2-1 win over Westlake Homes.

Brisbane Market dropped into a tie for second by losing on a split verdict to Donnellan Realty. San Pedro inched up by measuring Daly City Cleaners by the same count.

Plaza Furniture registered the lone shutout in whitewashing Paul's Flowers. Other 2-1 victors were Carmona Chemical over Bank of America, Vince & Fred's over Carlos's Pizzeria, Thur Meats over the Towne House and Edisco over Luce Meats.

High series was posted by consistent B. De Luca of Towne House with a 602. He rolled 206, 203 and 193 games. R. Byrne of lowly Edisco flashed a 213 second game for top singles.

DeLuca entered Tuesday's action with the top average in the loop at 183 for 27 games. On his heels were Del Fiel of San Pedro Lunch and E. Cool of Vince & Fred's.

Duffy's Kids Nab 2nd In Mid-Winter

Duffy's Corner horsehide nailed down second place in the Mid-Winter Recreation League Sunday by splitting a doubleheader to conclude the loop campaign.

John Souza of Johnny Shell Jrs. handcuffed the Irish kids in the first tilt on two hits, but Lowell Creighton's nine came back in the nightcap to clip Larry Barrett Tires, 4-1.

Podesta Nursery captured the championship, losing but once in eight outings, that being a defeat to the Duffymen.

Creighton's youngsters dropped a 4-3 verdict to the Barrett boys Saturday in non-league play. They plan to play two or more Saturday tilts before hanging up spikes for the year.

Beer, Wine, Show Prompt Council To Revoke Veterans Funds

City council this week released a statement of finances of the Veterans Firemen's association which prompted their action of last week in denying the veterans group further city funds.

Report including the period August, 1955, to August, 1956, included expenses of some $150 for beer and wine, and $103 for a show. These two items were most strenuously objected to by councilmen.

In acting to deny further allocations for activities such as these, the council lauded Gus Ford, secretary of the association, for the thoroughness of his financial report.

Colma Gridders Finish Season With 6-0 Win

Colma's Trojans wound up their season on a happy note last Thursday at Marchbanks with a 6-0 nod over Burlingame's gridders.

The clincher came on a 15-yard pass from Bruce Howard to Buddy Javier in the first half. Coach Jim Schaffer used most second stringers the rest of the way and the Colma defense was tops.

Schaffer sized up the campaign by praising "a defensive unit that's been outstanding all year." He cited linemen Gary Monyhun, Mike Page, Anthony Guillory, Steve Anderson, Ron Berry, Bill Pickering, Javier, Allen and Aita, and defensive backs Sonny Stoller, Martin Seelig, Gary Seelig, Ruta, Villa and Souza.

He also lauded his top offensive threats George Claus, Jim Lafrano and Howard.

The Colman posted a 2-3-1 record.

CSM FOOTBALLERS FINISH CAMPAIGN TONIGHT IN MODESTO

College of San Mateo will be after its second Big Eight conference victory this Friday night when it closes down the curtain on the season against Modesto JC in the valley city.

The Mateans are recuperating from a stinging 34-0 loss to City College of San Francisco last week, while Modesto is fresh from a rousing win over Sacramento, lone team defeated by the bulldogs.

At stake in the Modesto clash is the "Bronze Elephant," a game trophy named in honor of the late Charles S. Morris, who was president of Modesto JC before serving at CSB from 1931 to 1952.

Jeff Nips Scots, 20-19; Limp Into Cap Fracas

Stout hearted though terribly crippled, Boss Joe McGrath's Jefferson Indians have good reason to shudder tonight (Friday) when they face high and mighty Capuchino on the Burlingame turf.

The Tribe eluded the North PAL basement Friday with a 20-19 mont. But the "lift" was costly and Jeff's chances for a surprise this evening are just about out of the question.

Five Sidelined
No less than five Indian mainstays will be missing via injuries. Joining tackle Jim Farley and fullback Lee Casentini on the "out" list in Friday's bruiser were halves Sonny Martinez and Ed Leveroni and sub fullback George Domenici. All are nursing bad legs and may be shelved for the season.

Martinez, Leveroni and Domenici were racked up early against Carlmont and the locals had to hustle to go ahead to stay in the third period. Again junior QB Paul Tapia carried the load, with a big assist from his beefy line which wore down the depleted Scots in the second half.

Carlmont had a 13-0 lead in the second quarter as Jeff got off to a slow start. Tapia narrowed it to 13-7 just before the half with a two-yard plunge and a conversion toss to Bob Perry.

Knots Count
Paul pulled his troops up even early in the next period on another short buck, ending a swift drive, and then put the Tribe in front with a 57-yard pass play to Tom Cloutier. His pitch to his prize target for the extra point produced the margin of victory.

Carlmont came right back for their third tally on a nine-yard run, but missed the all important extra point.

An offside penalty erased another Jeff score which came on linebacker Bill Riedstra's 25-yard pass interception.

Scatbacks Dave Calloway and Dan Miceli did most of the ground work for Jeff with 83 and 54 yards, respectively. Cloutier hauled in five Tapia aials to move him closer to league leadership in receptions.

Almost Even
The Tribe led in first downs, 14-12, and total yards, 287-271, an indication of the tightness of the scrap. Enemy QB Bud Sweet hit 10 for 12 upstairs for 164 yards, while Tapia's 9 for 17 netted 120.

Jeff's line will be its chief asset tonight against the galloping Mustangs. McGrath is happy to have Lou Arrighi back at left guard to complete a tough forward unit.

Cloutier and Delmar Scott start at ends, Rich Duncan and George McNutt man the tackles, Riedstra teams with Arrighi and Ron Moon holds down center.

Green Fullbacks
Miceli again will work at left half opposite the steady Calloway, and Pat Lena and Herb Dirks will share fullback chores. Lena's a rangy 200-pounder who's been moved from an end position.

Cap is well-balanced and shows no signs of derailment off the title track. Top guns are QB Gene Tagliaferri and packers Jerry Scatini and Bill Cole.

The Mustangs eluded Burlingame last week, 28-13, and their only loss in four loop clashes was a 7-6 thriller to South City. Jeff hosts the Warriors Thanksgiving morning in their traditional beef.

LIGHTWEIGHTS TOP OLPH BOUTS NOVEMBER 29

San Francisco lightweights Willie Woods, a Golden Gloves champ, and Ramon Perez, undefeated, will mix it up in the main event at the Daly City community center November 29, as the OLPH Men's club renews its regular amateur boxing program.

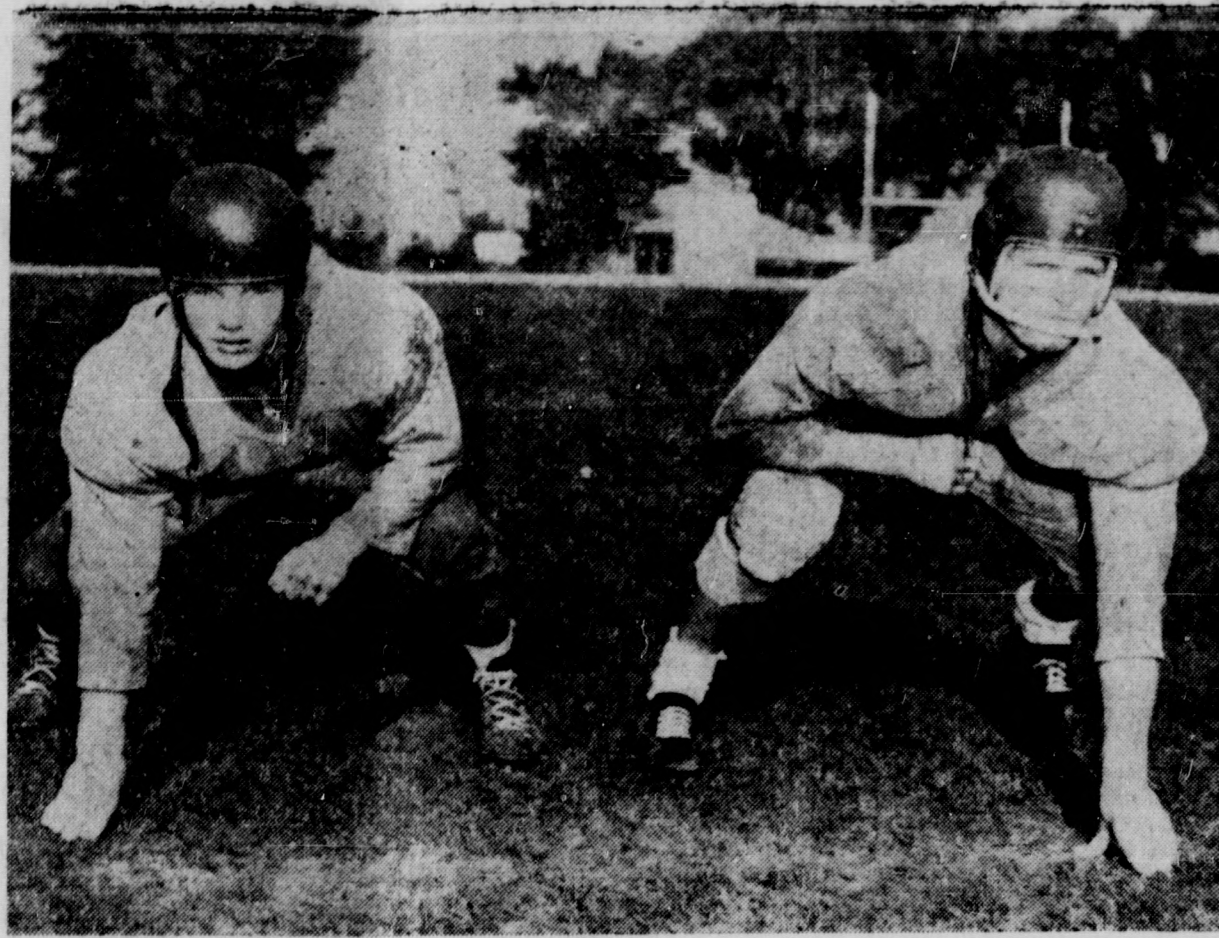

In the semi-main, a pair of undefeated middleweights, John Lawther of San Francisco and Jimmy Bouvart, San Jose, will square off for the benefit bouts. Lawther has a perfect record in 14 bouts, while Bouvart boasts nine straight wins without defeat.

Also billed as a crowd pleaser will be a heavyweight clash between John Hennessey of South San Francisco, and Dave Bradley of San Francisco.

Four more bouts are being arranged for the Thursday card which gets underway at 7:30 p.m.

Localite Tony Bosnich will referee, while judges will be Joe Rae, Jack O'Brien and Jack Mitchell. Dr. Don Lastretto will act as ringside physician, Joe Tracy as ring announcer.

Ringside seats are $1.50, general admission $1.

EXPECTED TO carry the load tonight against fierce Capuchino at Burlingame are Jeff's two all-North PAL candidates, Guard Bill Riedstra (left) and End Tom Cloutier. Both are transfers from S. F.'s Poly High and have been standouts to date. Riedstra, a sturdy 175, is regarded one of the best two-way performers in the league, while Cloutier, 200, is gunning for top honors in the pass reception department. THE RECORD photo

Garcia, Margaroni Spark Frosh-Soph Uprising, 24-7

Pete Garcia's pinpoint passing and two lightning bursts by John Margaroni provided Jefferson's Frosh-Soph's with a stunning 24-7 upset over Hillsdale Thursday on the Knight gridiron.

The convincing win was the first in six loop starts for Bob Watt's men and shot them out of the North PAL basement. Defeat left the Knight yearlings with a 3-2-1 record.

Garcia, a converted end, was razor sharp as he passed for a pair of scores and tallied a third on a 60-yard pass interception. His 11 pass hits for the afternoon went for 173 of Jeff's 356 total yards. The shocked Knights were held to 221 overall, 147 via the air.

Garcia launched the fireworks early in the first period by picking off a flat pass and scooting all the way. A few minutes later he fired a 40-yard strike to Dave Frost and Jeff took a 12-0 lead.

The Tribe young'uns added two more counters in the second quarter, both by the paperweight Margaroni. The 135-pounder skipped 60 yards off tackle on a quick opener for the third Jeff score, then hauled in a 15-yarder from Garcia and legged the final 45 yards.

Hillsdale's lone tally came just before the end of the half on a 30-yard aerial from Larry Pentek to Ron Peters. Jim Ahern had Peters covered but tripped at the last moment. Orv Lewis' extra point boot ended the scoring since both teams battled evenly in the second half.

The Wattmen saved themselves from embarrassment early in the contest when end Dick Kuhn picked up a Knight fumble on the Jeff 20 and mistakenly headed for his own goal line. He was nailed by teammates on the 10 to spare Jeff from a "Wrong Way Corrigan" incident.

Skipper Watt bubbled over his boys. "Garcia and Margaroni were great and I think the whole team played top ball."

Others singled out were linemen Bob Nielson, John Dean, Frank Lena, Felix Valdez, Bill Dixon, Bill DeCembra and Kuhn, plus backfielders Frost and Jerry Kennedy.

Watt's crew met South City yesterday in Warriortown. A nod over the winless Warriors would assure Jeff's permanent escape from the cellar.

Unbeaten Capuchino cinched at least a tie for the loop title last week in downing the Warriors, 14-0. Burlingame was next with a 5-1 record going into the final round of play this week.

Jeff's Tydingco, Reitz Appear Cinch To Grab League Scoring Titles

Jefferson's lightweight cagers got shelled for a pair of double-header losses last week against Carlmont and Hillsdale, but they take pride in the consolation that two of their number appear shoo-ins for individual scoring crowns.

Entering the final round of play Tuesday at South City, Gordy Tydingco of the 10's and Roy Reitz of the 20's were far in front of the two loops in the pointmaking department.

Tydingco had 83 points in seven games for an 11.9 average, while Reitz was supreme in the heavier bracket with 101 points for a 14.4 average. Gordy bagged 13 and Roy 15 against the Knights Thursday to stretch their margins.

Both 10's losses last week were close as Carlmont won out in the last few second, 31-29, and Hillsdale squeaked through, 28-25. The outcomes left Jeff with a 4-3 mark. Carlmont and San Mateo are knotted for first with 6-1 slates and Westmoor was next at 5-2. Playoffs are slated Thursday.

Orlich's 20's skidded last week by 52-31 and 41-25 scores. This left them at 2-5 and they weren't banking much on a win over South City Tuesday since the Warriors were 4-3.

Unbeaten San Mateo appears a cinch for the 20's crown, but should the Bears lose their finale they will meet Carlmont (6-1) in a showdown Thursday.

PAL finals are scheduled next Tuesday in both divisions.
